REVISED PROCEDURAL SCHEDULE

(Issued January 25, 2006)

On January 19, 2006, the Consumer Advocate Division of the Department of Justice (Consumer Advocate) filed a proposed revised procedural schedule and a request by both parties that the arrangements for the hearing not be finalized until the parties have verified their witnesses' availability. Telseven, L.L.C. (Telseven) concurred in the proposed revised procedural schedule. The proposal should be approved, although a deadline will be set for the parties to notify the Board of their witnesses' availability so that a complete notice of hearing may be issued.

IT IS THEREFORE ORDERED:

1. Telseven must file its prepared testimony and brief on or before March 14, 2006.

2. If the Consumer Advocate is going to file rebuttal testimony or a rebuttal brief, it must do so on or before April 4, 2006.

3. A hearing for the presentation of evidence and the cross-examination of witnesses will be held in Ottumwa, Iowa on Tuesday, April 25, 2006, beginning at 11 a.m. Ms. Linda Heady will appear as a witness at the hearing in person.

4. On or before March 1, 2006, the parties shall notify the undersigned whether their witnesses are available for the hearing. If the witnesses are not available, the parties shall propose a mutually acceptable alternate date for the hearing. Once the parties have filed their notification, the undersigned will issue an appropriate notice of hearing.

5. All provisions of the procedural order and notice of hearing issued November 10, 2005, not specifically modified by this order remain in effect.
