ORDER CLOSING DOCKETS

(Issued February 26, 2008)

This case involves complaints by two customers that MCI, Inc. (MCI) placed charges for international calls they did not make on their respective telephone bills. In each case, MCI refunded the disputed amounts to the customer. In each case, the Consumer Advocate Division of the Department of Justice (Consumer Advocate) filed a petition to consider a civil penalty for an alleged cramming violation with the Utilities Board (Board). On October 17, 2005, the Board issued an order consolidating the dockets, denying MCI's motion to dismiss, and assigning the dockets to the undersigned administrative law judge. On October 18, 2005, the undersigned issued an order setting a procedural schedule and a hearing date. On June 28, 2006, the undersigned issued an order suspending all activities in the case. On February 22, 2008, the Consumer Advocate filed a withdrawal of its petitions.
