IN RE: INTERSTATE POWER AND LIGHT COMPANY	DOCKET NO. RPU-08-1 (GCU-07-1)
---	-----------------------------------

ORDER TAKING OFFICIAL NOTICE

(Issued June 24, 2008)

On April 15, 2008, the Utilities Board (Board) issued an "Order Denying Motion to Consolidate and Requesting Additional Information" in Docket Nos.

GCU-07-1 and RPU-08-1. In that order, the Board addressed a request made by the Consumer Advocate Division of the Department of Justice (Consumer Advocate) that the Board take official notice in Docket No. RPU-08-1 of the entire administrative record in Docket No. GCU-07-1. In its order, the Board pointed out that the GCU record was voluminous and contained many pages of documents not related to the issues cited by Consumer Advocate. The Board said it would defer ruling on the request to take official notice until Consumer Advocate submits a more specific list of the portions of the GCU record believed to be relevant to the ratemaking principles proceeding and other parties have an opportunity to respond to that submission.

On April 22, 2008, Consumer Advocate filed an amended motion to take official notice. In response to the Board's request that a "more specific list" of the relevant portions of the record be submitted, Consumer Advocate simply said it wanted the Board to take official notice of any material cited by any party in post-hearing initial and reply briefs filed in the generation siting proceeding, Docket No. GCU-07-1. The Board in an order issued April 25, 2008, said it would again defer ruling on the request to take official notice until Consumer Advocate submitted a more specific list in compliance with the April 15 and 25, 2008, orders.

On May 9, 2008, Consumer Advocate submitted a specific index of documents, electronic files, exhibits, transcript cites, and other material subject to its request to take official notice. On May 22, 2008, IPL filed a response to the proposed index. IPL said it did not object to the list of material submitted by Consumer Advocate, but noted some duplication and clarified some page references to IPL's briefs. IPL also said it reserved the right to submit a request for official notice of additional material at a later date. No other responses to Consumer Advocate's index were filed.

The Board will take official notice of the material contained in Consumer Advocate's May 9, 2008, index, with the clarifications noted by IPL in its May 22, 2008, response. IPL may ask to take official notice of additional material at a later date, but this should be done well in advance of hearing so other parties will have sufficient time to respond to any request.

IT IS THEREFORE ORDERED:

The Board will take official notice of the material contained in the index filed by the Consumer Advocate Division of the Department of Justice on May 9, 2008,

DOCKET NO. RPU-08-1 (GCU-07-1)

subject to the clarifications contained in Interstate Power and Light Company's May 22, 2008, response.
