Iowa Utilities Board to hold public comment meeting on proposed natural gas rate increase by Liberty Utilities

(Des Moines) – Liberty Utilities (Liberty) has filed an application with the Iowa Utilities Board for an increase in its natural gas utility rates and charges in Docket No. RPU-2016-0003. Liberty provides natural gas service to nearly 4,000 customers in Keokuk and surrounding parts of Lee County, Iowa.

The Board has scheduled a public comment meeting for Liberty’s customers to express their views about the upcoming proposed rate increase and the general quality of service provided by Liberty. The public comment meeting is scheduled as follows:

- Keokuk – Thursday, September 15, 2016, 5:30 p.m., Hawthorne Elementary School, Keokuk, Iowa

The Board is also accepting written comments in this rate case, with the most effective comments being concise and making specific points supporting or objecting to the rate request. Customers may provide comments by using this electronic comment form or by email to customer@iub.iowa.gov, or by postal mail to the Iowa Utilities Board, Executive Secretary, Docket No. RPU-2016-0003, 1375 E. Court Ave., RM 69, Des Moines, Iowa 50319-0069.
